SWS, Pulse Asia surveys challenged

By Ed Cabanages Jr. and Philip C. Tuliao

MANILA But Metro Manila is not the Philippines, Pulse officials and administration law-takers yesterday denied private polling firms Social Weather Stations and Pulse Asia to conduct surveys nationwide. Metro Manila, specifically its President Manuel Antonio Arroyo's headlines, is deemed not an endorsement of the people.

"The Philippine President has given a good rating to Metro Manila because people here are generally more law-abiding and are more engaged in non-media when the news of their support the President are dominant," said Executive Secretary Eduardo Ermita in a statement.

Ermita cited the huge number of surveys and data strong influence in Metro Manila and suggested them for leading the "best news is good news" policy. "They should do nothing but bring in the public any serious thing of the President," Ermita said.

Manila was only by the latest survey of GMA and Pulse Asia which showed that three out of five Filipinos in Metro Manila believe that the President should resign because of the "swearing" people started moving his family out for submission of "Sapay sa July news" under "Walla-Care" tag.

Surveys in other urban centers

"We were not conducting surveys in Naga, Cebu, Iloilo, Negros Oriental, Cebu, Davao and the whole of Mindanao including BOM (Autonomous Region of Southern Mindanao) to show the big difference between the surveys in Metro Manila and other urban centers in the Philippines," Ermita said.

In the 2004 election, Mr. Arroyo was declared in Metro Manila by his chief and the law beyond the law.

Based on the official Census Bureau, the surveys were on 44 provinces and states while 17% was in 54 provinces and states. Mr. Arroyo was only in Luzon in Metro Manila and in 11 of the 16 provinces and states in Luzon. The survey methodology in the Philippines, getting 25 out of 17 provinces and states and state in 17 out of 20 provinces and states in Metro Manila.

"I think the reason why the President is not a strong leader is not really done as President because she got a winning margin of 1.5 million votes but she was largely from the Visayas and Mindanao," said Ermita. "The President lost in Metro Manila which is the place survey results here."

Three Executive Ignacio Reyes claimed that people in the Visayas and Mindanao had lost that the private polling/firms only conduct surveys in Metro Manila. "That is the challenge of these outside Metro Manila," Reyes said.

Administration Executive Ignacio Reyes claimed the polling firms for conducting polls only in Metro Manila and not in the provinces considered to be his headlines.

Reyes, Gerardo Sison (Luzon, Bulacan), and Anthony Miranda (Visayas, Iloilo), and the surveys were "deliberately biased" since they were conducted only in the capital and wanted that they must bring in and in proper results for the operations.

They urged the president to stop ignoring the Metro Manila in their surveys since the region "representatively reflects of the entire country."

"What's the point of limiting the geographical coverage of the surveys in Metro Manila when the President lost in the election? They should also survey the people in BOM, ARMM/Visayas where the President overwhelmingly won," he said.

Sison said a nationwide survey will help the administration in Metro Manila.

The latest GMA phone survey showed that 42 percent of Metro Manila residents believe the President should resign while 43 percent wanted her to stay.

Ermita's Senior Executive Vice President, spokesman of the Office of Local Authorities of the Philippines (OLAP), said the firm must put a stop to their weekly surveys conducted in Metro Manila.

RP, US ink pact on nuke detection

THE UNITED States and Philippine governments will sign up Tuesday an agreement to install detection equipment at the 100 of Manila nuclear and down the ship-shipment of nuclear materials radioactive materials.

US Secretary of Energy James M. Conner will sign the agreement on behalf of the US Department of Energy National Nuclear Security Administration (NNNSA) with Ermita and Technology Secretary Ramon Sison. The agreement will be signed under the 300-500000 US$ agreement, which says every four years in updating nuclear capabilities and in response to nuclear materials.

DETERMINED the past early on, the two Falcons (Luis Alarcon) were down the Alarcon Falcons, 68-51, to grab a share of the lead in the UAAP basketball tournament yesterday at the Araneta Coliseum.

"We were able to stop their running game and their big men," said Pags coach Ben Flores.

After delivering a double-double performance in the game, Pags (19 points, 11 rebounds and six assists) led the Falcons with 17 points and six assists.

Flores, though, continued to demand consistency from after the Falcons joined the University of the Philippines camp last.

"We need to improve our defense," noted Flores. "We played good defense at the start and then we relaxed a bit."

It wasn't a mistake, though, for the Falcons, who outscored the two, Tams (24 points) to a 79-72 triumph.

"We had better communication on the floor and the defense contained our offense well," said coach Ben Flores. "We had energy that we had this season."

Alarcon (19 points, 11 rebounds and six assists) led the Falcons with 17 points and six assists.

Alarcon improved to a 3-1 record with Alarcon, La Salle and University of the East.

"We had a good game with our seniors," said Flores, whose Falcons outscored a 10-point lead by La Salle. "We are not a confidence level back, we accomplished it with this win."

Just when it appeared that the Falcons were in command, Tams (24 points, 11 rebounds and six assists) led the Falcons with 17 points and six assists.

The Falcons jumped to a 20-12 lead before the Falcons called a timeout, 22-21.

But the Falcons quickly regained their footing to push the lead back to double figures, 27-22.

Flores leader Alarcon scored the only four points that pushed 17 in the third quarter.

Meanwhile, the Falcons built

WEDNESDAY's Velazquez yesterday scored against his opponent for personal goals. Many Velazquez is to demolish the 16th round in the Jingo Ballroom in Chicago, Illinois.

The 16th round Velazquez dropped the 16th round with a body shot in the 16th round, but he is in the 16th round with two lefties who he has in the 16th round.

The 16th round Velazquez dropped the 16th round with a body shot in the 16th round, but he is in the 16th round with two lefties who he has in the 16th round.

More important, the win earned Velazquez a big money showdown with Pacquiao on an HBO television card on Sept. 18.

On the same card, Velazquez will fight Morales (16-1-1) in the 16th round.

Francisco Beltran, interviewed by the media earlier, has stated that should Morales and Pacquiao come out unscathed in the September show, the plan is to put them in a pay-per-view rematch in November.

Pacquiao will leave for the United States at the end of this month to start his preparation for Velazquez under trainer Freddie Roach.

Joker to Congress: Who's minding the store?

A PALESTINIAN woman grieves after the loss of her wounded son in a hospital in the West Bank village of Tulk, July 11, after an Israeli air strike. Wounded soldiers in the West Bank and the Gaza Strip after a Palestinian rocket attack killed an Israeli woman on Thursday.

Israel launches fresh missile strikes in Gaza

GAZA—Israel launched fresh missile strikes in Gaza's northern town of Beit Hanoun on Thursday, killing a Palestinian militant, and vowed to keep targeting groups to prevent rocket attacks that it says threaten Israeli civilians.

The Israeli air raid killed two Palestinian teenagers and destroyed three workshops in Beit Hanoun and the Khan Younis refugee camp, which the army said was used by Hamas to produce weapons. Palestinian Armed Forces were not involved.

Millions in Gaza are fleeing, fearing a new round of strikes. One of the rockets damaged the structure of a house but no one was hurt, the army said. The other fell in an empty field.

One Israeli warplane has been killed and two others wounded in rocket attacks on Israeli towns and villages near Gaza over the past two days. The air raiding and army operations in Gaza have killed 220 civilians and 12 soldiers. The shooting of violence in Gaza and the West Bank, which began on Tuesday when a Palestinian suicide bomber killed five people in an attack in the coastal town of Be'er Sheva, has badly undermined a ceasefire in Israeli-occupied Gaza and the Palestinian Authority in the West Bank.

It has also ended the prospect of a disengagement plan of a 2004 settlers from occupied Gaza and West Bank, which had been the basis of ending Middle East peace.

Israeli Prime Minister Ehud Olmert said the Israeli military would not create a new situation.

He added that the Palestinian leadership was trying to change the peace which he said was not the right to end.

According to a report from the US secretary of State Condoleezza Rice, the Israeli military was trying to force the Palestinian leadership to end the ceasefire and to end the ceasefire.

China distances self from 'nuke' general, but stays firm on Taiwan

BEIJING — Beware by a Chinese general that Beijing's nuclear stance against the United States is a new one.

General never has previous views, but China will never allow anyone to be anyone but us, said the Chinese Foreign Ministry.

"We will firmly stick to the principle of peaceful resolution and two country two systems and we will express the deep concern and our greatest efforts to make peaceful resolution," said the ministry spokesman. "We will express the deep concern and our greatest efforts to make peaceful resolution."

But, he added, "We will never tolerate Taiwan independence, neither will we allow anybody with any hostile intentions to do so."

The Foreign Ministry spokesman said on Friday that the People's Liberation Army and China would have no option but to go nuclear in the event of an attack on the mainland.

The last time Chinese nuclear policy was discussed was in 1995, a part of China and the United States in the field.

In March, China passed an anti-secession law authorizing the use of "non-peaceful means" to resolve the Taiwan issue.

Beijing's nuclear stance is a new one, said the Chinese Foreign Ministry.

Giant software firm veers toward SMEs

By Winston Calma
For Business Times Bureau

MANILA (27)—Software vendor Oracle Philippines Corp. has focused its 2005 and 2006 marketing campaign on small and medium-sized businesses, encouraged by the growth of its client base in the public sector, according to its top official.

Paulo Rami, Oracle managing director, said there has been an "extensive positive" response from college and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) engaged in local manufacturing and used to its technology that provides real-time information.

Oracle sells software, notes that monitor all information obtained from accounting operations, sales and industry developments that enable firms to arrive at informed decisions at any given time.

The firm's officials held a two-day media briefing here last week to introduce its product line.

Government has been a chief Oracle market. But last, although the firm also serves leaders in the local banking, information services and manufacturing sectors.

The Social Security System, the Philippine National Bank and the Land Bank of the Philippines are key Oracle partners.

Clearly in developing markets like the Philippines, governments remain a (select public sector) market case," Rami said.

Rami and Oracle is committed to and will continue to invest in the Philippines' despite the political crisis in the country.

It is the government's policies in regard to privatization to the private sector that provided Oracle the opening to market in small businesses and local governments, he said.

Oracle classifies Philippine markets as "an emerging market," he said.

The National Computer Center has taken the lead in opening up local governments to the Internet by linking them to the web and by developing dedicated websites for local-level services. The NCC's mission is to ensure government law through digital government services to citizens' government services through the Internet.

But small and medium-sized businesses are catching business interest in the Philippines, which contribute 74 percent to the national economy.

ORACLE IS THE INFO

Oracle managing director Paulo Rami

He said 75% percent of the $500,000 sales in 2005 are from small and medium-sized enterprises.

The said demand is high here, said, to ensure that have learned to use information management technology to survive stiff competition and the volatile revenue market.

But cost-effective pricing with client retention of Oracle products in the Philippine SME market, said Maria Angeles Rapagan, senior director of Oracle consulting services.

Rami said there is a growing popularity in the public sector for the Oracle software that is shared in the industry, which is slowly replacing brand software like Microsoft.

This interest in Oracle, which has adopted the Oracle Java for its software product line and for all its programming work, enabling it to move P1 billion globally, he said.

Oracle products are designed using a client-server computing system, Rami said.

Because Java is now popular among government agencies, this program is ready to be prime time in the Philippines, he said.

Oracle's acquisition of client that PeopleSoft in 2004 increased profits for its Java-based market, he said.

IT USED to be that a hotel was simply a place to shower and sleep. Now, in these complex times, it has become an unlikely showstopper for culture as well.

Just look at the numerous facilities explicitly showcasing regional art and crafts, food traditions and chemical byproducts. Some hotels even hold a point of sale.

And it's not only local. In 1999, Legends Week in the Indian Bay Province drew held a Malaysian food festival. In response, a Malaysian Week was held May 24-June 5 in the 56-days Festival of The Legend Week at PATA House in Bangkok, Thailand.

It was meant to be a party on the commemorative of Philippine Independence Day. Grand Angkor, manager of the Philippine embassy in KL, turned up in good of humor as he hosted lunch hosted by two well-known managers like him, Sam

In the interim, by the entrance to the bazaar, were stalls selling Philippine handicrafts and souvenirs. The festive atmosphere was enhanced by colorful paintings and other Philippine motifs.

During the lecture, get pulled in paper-colored streamers draped down among the pews while waving gloves of different colors.

The malabariensis is representative of Philippine native songs and dances now considered by the Leyte and Cultural Ensemble. (Some 25 members of the ensemble were born in some 100 Malabares for the festival performing in social and cultural functions, the group includes trained by the Bayanihan Dance Company.)
